

HE DIED ON WAY HOME

Mr. Wade McGee Taken Sick in New York, Dies Before Reaching Petersburg Home.

MORTALITY AMONG NEGROES

Report of Health Officer Shows High Rate of Mortality Among the Black Race.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) PETERSBURG, VA., Nov. 27.—The body of Mr. Wade H. McGee, who died in Richmond early this morning, was brought to Petersburg this afternoon. Mr. McGee was a son of Mrs. Martha W. McGee, who lives on East Tabb Street, this city, and at the time of his death was a traveling salesman for the Phoenix Milling Company, of Petersburg. A week ago he telegraphed his wife from Buffalo, N. Y., that he was sick at a hotel. The next day the proprietor, in response to a telegram, said that Mr. McGee had left the hotel. It is supposed that he died in Richmond yesterday morning on his way home, and his presence at the depot indicated that it was his purpose to come to Petersburg. He was a member of Petersburg Lodge of Elks, of the local T. E. A., and of the Order of Railway Conductors. Mr. McGee married Miss Myrtle Malloy, of this city, who survives him with one son.

HEALTH FIGURES. The report of Health Officer Martin for the month ending November 25th shows a particularly high rate of mortality among the colored people. The report of deaths is as follows: Whites 18, colored 34, total 52. Under five years of age 14, over fifty years of age 7.

Non-residents buried in city cemeteries, 7. Rate of mortality, whole population, 24 per 1,000 per annum; white 10, colored 51.

Mr. John H. DeHaven has been appointed by the Corporation Court committee of the estate of his brother, Mr. Robert W. DeHaven, who is under treatment at a hospital, Mr. J. T. P. A., and the whole estate is valued at about $15,000. Beginning next Sunday, Rev. George E. Booker, pastor of High Street Church, will preach a series of sermons upon "The Great Sinners of the Bible."

MANY MARRIAGES. Last evening at 6 o'clock, at the parochial residence, on Market Street, Miss Emma C. Powers and Mr. William Poarch were married by Rev. Father O'Farrell.

Wedding evening, Mr. Emmett J. Higgins and Mrs. Mary E. Butler were married at High Street Church parsonage by Rev. George E. Booker.

Miss Fannie Tudor and Mr. Thomas J. Page were married last evening by Rev. George E. Booker at the church parsonage.

All the above couples are residents of Petersburg.

The report made by High Street Methodist church at the annual conference, held at Charlottesville, was perhaps the most gratifying ever made in the history of the church. During the year there were 12 new members, and a membership of 720 members. Nearly $6,000 was raised during the year for all purposes. The debt incurred for improvements to the church has been paid off and a new class room has been constructed and excellently equipped.

The Sunday school, which is the largest in the Petersburg District, is divided into three departments, each of which would make a creditable school.

The members of the church contemplate the purchase of a new pipe organ for the church in the near future.

At a recent meeting of the official board, the salary of the pastor was raised from $1,900 to $1,600.

OIL IN SOUTHWEST

Indications Are That Deposits in Wise and Lee Are Rich.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BRISTOL, VA., Nov. 27.—Mr. P. C. Thompson, representing the Flat Lick Oil and Gas Company, has been in the oil and gas fields in Wise, Lee and other counties in Southwest Virginia, visited the wells in West Virginia this week and was in consultation with State Chemist, Dr. J. C. White, of that State, regarding the methods of developing oil and gas properties.

Mr. Thompson left with Dr. White specimens of the oil and gas from the undeveloped fields of the Southwest Virginia counties. While at the Flat Lick, he has been busy developing the Southwest Virginia properties, the surface indications are highly encouraging, and Mr. Thompson says that his company will begin sinking shafts at an early date.

The crude oil that has been found on the surface from the crevices of the rocks shows an excellent quality, and now only the matter as to whether it abounds in commercial quantities has to be determined.

As to the gas, Mr. Thompson thinks there will be no doubt about its being found in paying quantities, as there already seems to be ample evidences of it. Should the oil and gas of Wise and Lee counties prove as plentiful as the West Virginia oil regions, the industrial developments of those counties, which are now noted for their coal production, will be doubled.

It would mean the investment of additional millions in the region where the Wentzes have invested their millions.

PRETTY WEDDING.

Mr. Walter Henry Crews and Miss Jeremy Are United.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Saxe, Va., Nov. 27.—"The Barlows," the home of Mr. D. C. Jeremy, near Saxe, Va., was the scene of a pretty wedding on Thursday night, when Miss Mabel Jeremy became the wife of Mr. Walter Henry Crews. Rev. Hiram Crews, of Southsburg, a great-uncle of the groom, performed the ceremony.

The parlor and dining room were tastefully decorated in cedar and cut flowers. In one corner of the parlor an arch was erected, from the center of which was suspended a bunch of mistletoe, tied with a large bow of white ribbon. The dining room presented a pretty picture with its garlands of running cedar and bunches of chrysanthemums and carnations. From the ceiling hung ribbon streamers of white and yellow, which were fastened to the four corners of the room.

Master George Crews, a brother of the groom, and Miss Virginia Criddle, a niece of the bride, held the ribbon to form an aisle. First came little Miss Mabel Criddle, dressed in white and bearing the ring on a white satin cushion. Next, Miss Debbie Jeremy, as maid of honor, in cream altarpiece and carrying a large bunch of yellow chrysanthemums. Lastly, the bride, leaning on the arm of the groom. The bride's dress was of white, elaborately trimmed in Mechlin lace and insertion, and she carried a bride rose. The wedding march from Lohengrin was rendered by Mrs. W. B. Criddle, a sister of the bride.

Only the near relatives of the bride and groom were present.

After a banquet supper the happy couple left for their newly furnished home, at Saxe, Va.

FALSE THEORIES Lead to Worthless or Harmful Remedies. Stimulating the scalp may allay the itching of dandruff, but that does not cure the scalp. The disease won't yield to quinine or capsicum eye alcohol, cause of it is caused by a germ or parasite. To cure dandruff the germ must be destroyed. Until recently there was no hair preparation, or dandruff cure, or hair restorer on the market that would kill that insidious germ that dries up the scalp in little scales called dandruff, and absorbs the vitality of the hair, causing falling hair, and finally baldness. Newbro's Herculite is the only really scientific preparation to cure dandruff, prevent falling hair and baldness. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herculite Co., Detroit, Mich. Owens & Minor Drug Co., Special Agents.
